WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section showers and cooler tonight. Friday fair, cooler, light to fresh southwest to northwest winds.

Weddings.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season took place last night when Miss Miss Irene Smithers and Mr. James Owen Reilly, of Wilmington, N. C., were joined in happy wedlock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. H. Smithers, on upper Prince street. The north wing of the parlor had been tastefully decorated with evergreen and trailing vines, with a background of palms and ferns and the whole surmounted by a wedding bell caught on either side by ribbons, made a fitting canopy for the beautiful ceremony and lent a color scheme impressive of the happy occasion. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. Irving Ludwig, the groom, with his best man, Mr. George W. Keys, entered the east door leading to the parlor, while the bride, on the arm of her brother, Mr. D. K. Smithers, and accompanied by her bridesmaid, Miss Alice Reilly, sister of the groom, came through the south door and proceeded to the north end where Rev. H. J. Cutler, pastor of St. Mary's Church, performed the short but beautiful ceremony of the Catholic Church. After a brief reception Mr. and Mrs. Reilly left for Saratoga where they will spend some time and after their return will make their home in Wilmington, where the groom is a well known and prosperous young business man. The bride, who is numbered among Alexandria's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies, was gown in white organdie over silk, with flowing veil, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. The only ornament worn by the bride was a sunburst of diamonds and pearl, the gift of the groom. The bridesmaid wore white organdie over silk and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. Among the out-of-town guests were Messrs. T. H. Fitz, of Richmond; William Sowerd of Gordonsville, and William Lawler, of Washington. The bride and groom were the recipients of numerous beautiful and costly presents.

Miss Catharine V. Heartbower and Mr. Ernest Zimmerman, of Fairfax county, were married at St. Mary's Church yesterday by Rev. H. J. Cutler.

Fatal Affair.

It was stated in yesterday's Gazette that a difficulty had occurred in Fairfax county on last Saturday night between two men in which one of the combatants emerged with a cut head. The affair it now seems, was of a more serious nature than was first supposed, one of the parties having since died. The circumstances in connection with the affair as reported to the police in this city are as follows: On Saturday Wilmer Beavers came to this city and later went home in an intoxicated condition and became menacing toward his wife, who fled from the house. He subsequently met William Simpson, a former resident of this city, but now living in Fairfax, and leveling a gun at him discharged the weapon. He then advanced on Simpson and pushed the muzzle of the gun against his breast. Simpson seized the fowling piece, and beating Beavers over the head with it and rendered him hors de combat. Beavers later went to his home and yesterday visited Alexandria in search of surgical attention, he having been seriously injured on the head. He died this morning about 4 o'clock. Simpson surrendered himself to Justice Kerby, yesterday, but was allowed to go on his personal recognizance, and today, after learning of Beavers' death again delivered himself up. He will furnish bail for his appearance at the inquest and at Fairfax Court.

Nocturnal Disorders.

About one o'clock this morning Joseph Adams, a well-known colored individual living near the east end of the Wilkes street tunnel, went home and found a colored man with a woman with whom Adams is said to live, and proceeded to mete out vengeance upon her. The woman's cries awoke many people in the neighborhood, some of whom discharged pistols in order to frighten Adams and make him desist from beating the woman. Fearing that he would be arrested, he made a hasty exit, breaking down a door in passing from the house. Officers Mayhugh and Patterson were at the tunnel at 12:30 o'clock, a short time before the difficulty, when they heard cries of murder on Jefferson street, between St. Asaph and Washington, and had hastened thither. They arrested Henry Mason and Fannie Simmons, both colored, who had caused the disturbance. The officers subsequently returned to the tunnel, but Adams had in the meantime escaped.

Sent on to Court.

John Ennis, who was arrested last Sunday, charged with breaking into Armory Hall on the preceding night and removing certain articles to the door, was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning. He was represented by Mr. Robinson Moncure. After the evidence of the witnesses had been heard the accused was held for the grand jury. During the examination there were pathetic scenes in the court. The mother and wife of the accused were present. Ennis has been married about a year, and the distress of the two women attracted much attention. When Mr. Moncure called Ennis's mother to take the stand for the defense, the prisoner, with moist eyes, objected, he not being able to bear the sight of her in court, although she was about to testify in his behalf.

Italian Warship Coming.

The Italian warship Doglio will, as has been stated, arrive here in the latter part of the month, and will spend several days here. The pilot who will bring the ship up the Potomac has been notified to meet the vessel at Cape Henry next Sunday and about Tuesday or Wednesday she will arrive off this port where she will anchor.

Circuit Court for the County.
[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]
Stribler vs. Calvert; a damage suit; case in progress.

Mr. George Schreiner has removed his tailoring establishment to 1125 King street.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

Margie Allen and Annie Baker, both colored, arrested by Officer Young charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

A white man, arrested by Officer Patterson for vagrancy, was sent to jail for ten days.

A white man, arrested by Officer Allen for drunkenness, was sent to jail for ten days.

William and Charles Blumfield, two boys who had run away from their homes in Baltimore, arrested by Officers Beach and Lyles, were detained.

Henry Mason, colored, arrested by Officers Mayhugh and Patterson for disorderly conduct, was fined $5. Fannie Simmons, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

Clarence Grady, colored, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson, charged with assaulting Carrie Evans, was dismissed.

Samuel Williams, colored, arrested by Officers Beach, Lyles, Arrington and Knight charged with assaulting Bertie Williams with a pistol, was fined $5.

Carrie Evans, colored, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

John Ennis, charged with breaking into Armory Hall, was sent on to the grand jury.

Death from Natural Causes.

As was stated in yesterday's Gazette, there was reason to suppose that Charles Thornton, colored, of this city, whose dead body was found between the tracks of the Washington-Southern Railway, near Waterloo, Monday night, was not struck by a train, but was the victim of foul play. Albert Eskridge, colored, who keeps an eating house nearby, was arrested, as it was believed he could throw some light on the mystery, Thornton having been last seen alive in his place.

Dr. S. T. Ashton, of the county, held a coroner's inquest over the remains at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaker's establishment this afternoon. Previous to the assembling of the jury he stated that he had found what was supposed to be a wound made by a bullet in the lower part of Thornton's left side. Further examination, however, showed that what had been regarded as a bullet wound was an old scar. After hearing the testimony of several witnesses the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that Thornton's death was due to natural causes.

The Lipscomb Trial.

Andrew A. Lipscomb, a member of the Washington bar, was placed on trial in this city yesterday on an indictment charging him, in connection with Thos. M. Fields, also an attorney, of embezzling funds belonging to the Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, of which they were receivers, amounting to $15,974. Fields was tried and convicted several weeks ago. After several hours a jury was secured and the hearing of witnesses begun.

At this morning's session of the trial the identification of checks drawn against the Washington Loan and Trust Co. was commenced.

Capt. Parker, treasurer of the Washington Loan and Banking Association resumed the stand. He identified the signatures and endorsements on the checks. Later he was cross-examined by the defense. Adjournment for lunch was announced at the conclusion of Capt. Parker's testimony.

Virginia News.

The Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, which has been in session at Norfolk, adjourned sine die yesterday after re-electing the old officers.

Dr. Stuart McGuire has been elected president of the University College of Medicine at Richmond to succeed Dr. J. Allison Hodges who had resigned.

The State Board of Education met in Richmond today to look further into charges that excessive prices have been charged for the Virginia Teachers' Register and that a member of the Department of Education is connected with the publication.

The Southern Vehicle Association, which has been in session at Old Point, this week, adjourned yesterday to meet next year in Charleston, S. C. Lucius Gregory was elected president. An amendment to the constitution allowing all dealers in vehicles to become members was adopted.

There were about 5,000 votes cast out of a possible 7,000 in the Richmond primary on Tuesday. The winners were: For State Senator, Charles J. Anderson, who received 3,987 votes; Commonwealth's Attorney, Mintree Folkes, 1,635; Auditor, E. J. Warren, 3,012; City Collector, Frank W. Cunningham, 4,014; City Sergeant, J. C. Smith, 2,884; High Constable, William H. Wyatt, Jr., 2,876. For the House of Delegates the following were elected: Harry C. Glenn, E. P. Cox, E. C. Massie, Robert E. Peyton, Jr. and Ordway Puller.

Shields Morton.

Extensive correspondence is published in which Attorney General Moody gives his reasons for his refusal to take contempt proceedings against the officials of the Santa Fe Railroad case, including Secretary Morton, in the famous rebate case. Included in the correspondence are two letters from President Roosevelt, one to Attorney General Moody approving of his course and the other to Morton expressing confidence in him. Incidentally, the President expresses himself in favor of federal supervision of the great life-insurance corporations.

Messrs. Judson and Harman, special attorneys, found positive evidence that the Santa Fe Railroad, while Paul Morton was president, had violated a Federal court injunction against rebates. They advised the punishment of all the officers of the railroad company for contempt of court.

Attorney General Moody refused to prosecute the officers, but wished to prosecute the corporation.

Harmon and Judson asserted that this was insufficient and retired from the case. Mr. Morton declared the injunction was granted on his evidence and he issued orders against rebates.

The President now praises Mr. Morton in the highest terms and explains why he would not let him be prosecuted.

The Crawford Case.

The jury in the trial of William G. Crawford, accused of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with postal supplies, which has been out since 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, was called into court in Washington after 3 o'clock yesterday by Justice Wright. The foreman said the jury had been unable to agree. Additional instructions were asked; also the contracts between the Postal Lock and Device Company and Lorenz. The jury then again retired.

The jury reported to Justice Wright this morning, that they were still unable to agree. The foreman in response to Justice Wright's question as to whether the jury had reached a verdict, replied: "Your honor, the jury has not been able to agree, and I am afraid, your honor, that it is a hopeless case. It is utterly impossible. We have been at it for 40 hours, now, and it is utterly impossible for this jury to agree." Justice Wright after giving them a few questions for their consideration sent them back to the jury room for further deliberations.

The jury this evening again reported that they could not agree and was discharged.

Postmaster's Salaries.

The following additional changes have been made in the salaries of Virginia postmasters: Alexandria, from $2,600 to $2,700; Blackburg, from $1,500 to $1,600; Lexington, from $2,100 to $2,200; Martinsville, from $1,500 to $1,600; Williamsburg, from $1,500 to $1,600; Graham, from $1,500 to $1,600; Manassas, from $1,500 to $1,600; Strasburg, from $1,000 to $1,100; Wytheville, from $1,700 to $1,800.

Virginia Weddings.

Mr. Robert C. Hall was married yesterday morning at Front Royal to Miss Martina E. Sowers, only daughter of Mr. J. E. Sowers.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Petersburg, yesterday afternoon, Miss Roberta Bolling Gill was married to Mr. Waverly W. Minnetree.

The marriage of Miss Annie Lee Laird to Rev. Wilbur Cosby Bell, of Staunton, took place yesterday at 10:30 o'clock at St. James's Episcopal Church, Warrenton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William H. Laird, brother of the bride. The best man was Mr. John Bell, brother of the groom. Dr. Joseph Packard Laird gave the bride away.

Following the ceremony an informal breakfast was given at the rectory, and Mr. and Mrs. Bell will have charge of Trinity Parish, Onancock.

Will Grant Appeal.

Brattleboro, Vt., June 22.—Mary Rogers will not hang tomorrow. Judge Wheeler will grant an appeal tonight, when the case will be taken to the Supreme Court. Governor Bell will grant further reprieve tonight. Mrs. Rogers will remain in the Windsor State prison. She will probably never hang, as it will be a year before the court at Washington can dispose of her case, and by that time, the Vermont State legislature will, it is expected, have repealed the law of capital punishment.

Billed by Bomb.

Warsaw, Poland, June 22.—A dispatch received from Chentochow says that the chief of police of that town was mortally wounded today by the explosion of a bomb, which was thrown by a terrorist. The assailant, an unknown man, escaped.

Governor Deuce, of Illinois, today reprieved Johann Hoch, the Chicago alleged murderer, until July 28, in order that he may have time to get his case before the Supreme Court. The Governor is taking this action following a long established precedent of the executive office to give condemned men every possible opportunity to go before the higher courts.

Mr. M. D. Hall, of Fairfax, sent by the State Board of Education to try the case against T. W. Hendricks, principal of the Culpeper school, charged with unjustifiably whipping the twelve-year-old son of Rev. J. W. Ware, decided that the punishment was not malicious, but unjustified.
